

Richard Valcourt

September 24, 1939 – August 14, 2010

Richard spent his entire working career with Bell Canada and retired early enough to enjoy and take advantage of his love for traveling, gardening, skiing, and entertaining. His love for his family, friends and life in general ensured that laughter and good times were always present. He volunteered his time within the community in minor sports and local charities.

He was the quintessential Canadian. He loved his country, its history and the people he met while on his travels.

Most of all he loved his family and his family loved him – miss you already!

Thank you for your donations in memory of Richard to help support research needed to find the cure for pancreatic cancer -

The Valcourt Family